

I would personally like to see more restrictions place on telemarketers. I am constantly being called and each time I request to be removed from their calling list, but I think my plea falls on deaf ears.